A River Runs Through It - Reform and Enlightenment

Each new era begins, characteristically, with a reformation. From the rise and fall of empires, to the ebb and flow of religion, history moves like a pendulum, between sin and grace, between being lost and being found. Our spiritual journey is no different. During this Lenten Season, let us revisit pivotal moments in history and literature that mark our sacred journey and call us, once again, to be reflectors of God's light.

Join us Wednesdays as we reflect on selected moments of enlightenment and reformation that have shaped our journey in faith.

Wednesday, March 8th

"Dancing Sarah's Circle or Climbing Jacob's Ladder." With a focus on the major prophets of the Old Testament, we will look at the prophetic revolution in scripture. "From priestly to prophetic." "Literature is my utopia." Helen Keller

Wednesday, March 15th

Celebrate the wisdom and courage of those reformers, well known and not so well known, who were leaders of the 16th century reformation. "Dare to know! That is the slogan of enlightenment." Kant(1783)

Wednesday, March 29th

The river of story-telling runs through the Judeo-Christian tradition, from the earliest accounts of creation, through the parables of the New Testament, to our current fascination with modern stories – especially those associated with Jewish culture. In the third and fourth sessions of the Lenten series we will tell and discuss stories that have arisen in relatively modern times. Some are mostly entertaining, some enigmatic, some have moral lessons, and some illustrate theological concepts. All of them provide a fresh way of expressing our faith.

Fr. Al Crumpton

Wednesday, April 5th

Our Lenten series will conclude with the development of our Book of Common Prayer through the centuries. We will focus on the unique characteristics of our catholic and protestant traditions, and how the ebb and flow of these traditions from the time of the English Reformation to today have shaped our Anglican way of worship found in our Prayer Book.
